I really appreciate all of the humor here having worked this detail more times than I care to remember. But in the interest of security post 9/11, should a million people be permitted to crowd into a neighborhood with security so lax that they were able to bring dozens of firearms in? I am not so much worried about 3 or 4 dozens mopos smoking each other but couldn't Al Qaeda blow up a THV or a hundred cops at a streetcorner muster? This is really more serious than 40 or 50 dead mopos.

Ummm...looking at this picture--where is the parade? And those do not look like West Indians...why is a guy running with a baby stroller?

Listening to everyone, this sounds like a horrible event--why does your city allow such mayhem?

I am a retired deputy sheriff in Ohio, our city does make "private" functions pay the OT to the city for the police detail, and being

OT, is offered to those that want to work it.

Sounds like I would not volunteer for this one...

Why doesn't NYPD brass utilize crowd control techniques like they do @ times square on new years? I know it won't stop the guns but it can control the crowds. Another question, How many people attend the parade & how many police officers are assigned to the parade? Are there enough cops at the parade? I know that random bag searches are used @ Time square (looking for alcohol), is the same done at the parade? Our brothers & sisters in blue put their lives on the line everyday, there is no reason to put them unnecessarily in harms way. Stop the parade if you can't protect everyone that attends.

At the very least the same RULES that apply to ALL parades in the city...should apply i.e....Why do we confiscate alcohol on St Paddy's Day? If a bar in Bay Ridge received 3 disorderly premise summonses for noise or fighting they would be closed for nuisance abatement. The fact that the City grants a permit for this "parade" which has resulted in at least one homicide in each of the last 44 years is the definition of insanity.

The first time I worked this so called "parade", was in 1989. A girl fell off the float, was run over, died...and they kept going. After that, there were shootings galore, then...get this, a sword fight. Yep, like something out of Braveheart. I watched, in shock..as these 2 savages went at it. After an intense duel, one skid was impaled, died right on the corner of Franklin and Eastern Pkwy. The other skid was locked up by the 71, like it was nothing. An old timer, from the 71, laughed, looked at me and said "Having fun yet kid ?". Thank God for the IVD.

So when she's interviewed by Michael Daly(douche bag) what does she say....."i'll be back next year" and that (this shooting)"is not part of our culture". Well I have worked this parade every year for the last 6 years and there has been multiple shootings every year on and off of the parade route. So I say with great confidence that THIS IS PART OF YOUR CULTURE.

Every Officer that was listening to their radios last night and heard the yells and screams of the Police Officers as gunfire erupted in the background understands and accepts that situation like this one can happen to any of us at anytime. But....the NYPD and this city prides itself on being Pro-Active. So lets be Pro-Active, keep the our Officers safe and CANCEL THIS PARADE ONCE AND FOR ALL!!!!
