Dear Santa

My name is Arizbeth I am 11 years old and I'm writing this letter for my sister Brittany because she is 7 years old she wants to tell you that she loves you alot and thats shes going to put cookies with milk when you come because she knows you exist she has seen you in Macy's because my mom take us to seen you every year at the Macy's bollons an my Sister waves to you so she knows that you exist. She want to ask you for a teddy bear from Build a bear workshop I ask you if you can please bring her a letter from the North Pole so that she knows that you got our letter. I thing that last year you diding have enough time bring us presents because I know you have to go around the world delivering presents. Thats why I ask you if you can at least send a letter.

have a great

Christmas

love: Brittany
