Statement of Michelle Kramer

I am the mother of Dominique Gardner. My daughter, Dominique, was in an abusive relationship with R. Kelly. I am here today in support of the bruised warriors who have come forward and those who haven't yet found that courage.

As a mother I have a message for him. I and other mothers are watching you. If you attempt to bully or retaliate against our daughters for speaking their truth, we will take appropriate action against you.

Our daughters are not alone in this battle. We love our brave daughters and the fact that you are a celebrity will never stop us from doing what we can to support and protect them.
